Note to person making submission

If you are a person who could gain an advantage in trade competition through the submission, your right to make a submission may be limited by clause 6(4) of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Resource Management Act 1991.

Please note that your submission (or part of your submission) may be struck out if the authority is satisfied that at least 1 of the following applies to the submission (or part of the submission):

- it is frivolous or vexatious;
- it discloses no reasonable or relevant case;
- it would be an abuse of the hearing process to allow the submission (or the part) to be taken further;
- it contains offensive language;
- it is supported only by material that purports to be independent expert evidence, but has been prepared by a person who is not independent or who does not have sufficient specialised knowledge or skill to give expert advice on the matter.

2	NHP8	Oppose	We object to the order of sequence of the 'extinguishing of existing residential use rights'	We believe the extinguishing of existing use rights should be the final part of this process. We expect to see a guaranteed funding proposal agreed to by all stake holders and a property purchase proposal in place before continuing with the proposed Plan change 17 which includes the extinguishing of existing use rights. If we lose our existing property rights first we will feel totally disempowered. We will lose all negotiating power. We have worked very hard all our lives to purchase our property ownership and we will not give these rights up without a firm purchase agreement in place first. THIS IS OUR HOME. We have lived on the Awatariki fan head in Matata for 31 years. We have raised our three children here and it is the only family home they have ever known. We love living here and enjoy our home, garden and coastal environment. We wanted to continue living here for the remainder of our natural lives. We consider ourselves Tangata whenua to our land.

				We are not participating in this process willingly but feel we have been forced into a corner to negotiate the best outcome for relocation. This has been a very long drawn out process and we encourage Whakatane District Council, Bay of Plenty Regional Council and Central Government to seek a fair and reasonable resolution to all stake holders as soon as possible. We wish to speak in support of our submission. Thank you Mark and Greta Nicholson 16.09.18
