

Matata Coast Care

Restoration of Domain dune and installation of access for 4WD vehicles

July 1998

Community members installing timber access for 4WD vehicles. Excavator is creating a bund to direct vehicles onto the access. Planting started after the fence was completed.

April 2004

Native dune plants are accumulating sand, especially on the seaward margin (see disappearing access fence). Vehicle access is regularly used.