Attention: Toi Moana Regional Council

1. This submission is presented by the hapu representatives of the Matakana and Rangiwaea Islands Hapu Management Plan – Edition 2 Updated March 2017 (HMP), created as a Tool that enables the whanau, whanui to have engagement with Regional Council on all matters relevant to the RMA including our cultural taonga such as;
 - Tribal waters, including recognition of our customary rights under the (Takutai Moana) Act 2011
 - Environmental Biodiversity
2. This submission intends to point out key features that relate to the aspirations of the Matakana and Rangiwaea Islands Hapu Management Plan and the 2018 – 2028 Long Term Plan. This will be reflected in the following themes;
 - Te mauri o Te Wai – allocation, ski lanes
 - Kaitiakitanga – restoration and biodiversity projects
 - Whakarurutanga – Opureora Marae erosion protection works
 - Kotahitanga – relationships, communication, decision-making
 - Whakatipu Ohanga – facilitating the creation of more green space
3. Our submission supports Toi Moana, Komiti Maori and its constituent Councilors’ who work tirelessly on our behalf and indeed as is our case. The Environmental Enhancement Fund although negligible assists whanau with inspiring mahi and communities. Also the budget for Hapu Management Plan creation is essential for ongoing discussions that enable whanau, hapu, iwi to participate in terms of kaitiakitanga.
4. We would like to speak to our submission at the Hearing
